Chris Harris's spin on infertility

Join us for a casual evening of support and information. Fertility NZ Ambassadors and former Black Cap Cricketer Chris Harris and his wife Linda will share their journey, followed by a presentation by Dr Andrew Murray. Whether you are wanting children in your future, have been trying-to-conceive for years, or are somewhere in between, there will be information and support for you.

Register today at Eventbrite.com, free of charge. Suggested donation of $5pp via www.givealittle.co.nz/org/fertilitynz or a donations box on the night. Numbers are limited, reserve your place today!

Fertility Week is organised by Fertility New Zealand, a registered Charity dedicated to providing information, support and advocacy to New Zealanders experiencing fertility issues.
